NOTIFICATION

No. EX-B1-3850/59. Dated, Trivandrum, 18th February 1960.

S. S. L. C. Examination, March 1960 — Private candidates appearing in language subjects under the Unified Scheme (Elective System) ie. Optional first language, Compulsory first language, Compulsory second language, and Compulsory third language—

Private candidates appearing in language subjects under the Unified Scheme will be examined in the Text Books and portions prescribed and followed for the Examinations of March and September, 1959 or in the Text Books and portions prescribed to be taught for new Standard X during this school year in the schools presenting pupils under the Unified and Academic Schemes for the S.S.L.C. Examination of March, 1960. Separate Question Papers in language subjects based on the former textual portions and also on the current textual portions will be provided at each Examination Centre. Private candidates under the Unified Scheme alone are given the option to choose either the question paper set on the old portion and texts or the question paper set on this year's texts and portions and give a requisition in writing to the Chief Superintendent stating which paper he desires to have.

The question papers in Core Subjects and Elective Subjects including languages under electives, will be the same for private candidates as well as for school candidates of the Unified Scheme.
